WORD AND LIFE PRESENTS “LIFE’S PUZZLING QUESTIONS AND THE REPLY OF THE HEART”

led by Dave Richo with his book The Sacred Heart of the World

There is no final answer to the ultimate questions because they are not really questions. They state a given of life. We don’t find a solution, we only enter a mystery.

Why bother with questions that have no answer, some ask. There certainly are no final answers from the mind, but there are responses from the heart. There are no fully satisfactory explanations, but there are spiritual practices that help us make sense of our lives and world.

To engage with life as people of heart we act as if it had meaning, so that it has meaning. Then we see that it has meaning. We will explore practices of loving-kindness that help us make sense of the questions that have baffled and bewildered people throughout the ages.

David Richo, Ph.D., M.F.T., is a psychotherapist, teacher, workshop leader, and writer who works in Santa Barbara and San Francisco CA. He combines Jungian, transpersonal, and mythic perspectives in his work.
